

SURRY SCHOOL DISTRICT POLICY

SECTION K: SCHOOL-COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Section K contains policies on parent and community involvement in schools. The Surry School Board does not operate any schools and is recognized as a sending district. Therefore, the Surry School Board recognizes and incorporates by reference the policies regarding school-community relations applicable to students and parents/guardians of students attending the receiving school district and adopted by the receiving school boards in the school districts where Surry resident students attend school.

The following Section K policies pertain to the duties and responsibilities of the Surry School Board.
